■ Market commentary

In a relatively quiet month for markets, equities made further progress while government bond markets slipped back. With the Delta variant continuing to spread, leading to the imposition of new restrictions by China and many other countries, consumer confidence, high frequency mobility and other leading indicators weakened.

Growth is also being restrained by two other developments in recent months. First, the increasing evidence of supply shortages, especially semiconductors but spreading well beyond that, due to the surge in demand as lockdowns were eased earlier in the year and to production disruption triggered by the pandemic. The second dampener has been the slowdown in China. With the economy recovering earlier than others last year from the pandemic the authorities removed stimulus measures and focussed more on financial stability in the early months of 2021. The resulting loss of momentum was then exacerbated by tightened regulations and sanctions on a wide range of the private sector, which has soured sentiment and confidence.

Developed markets, measured by the MSCI World index, returned 2.5% over the month, with the UK and US returning 1.9% and 3.0% respectively. Emerging markets rose 2.6% in local terms.

Bond markets returned -0.5% in August, as measured by the Bank of America Merrill Lynch Global Broad Market index, with US Treasuries and US corporate investment grade bonds returning -0.1% and -0.3% respectively, compared with 0.5% from US high yield bonds.

As the impact of the pandemic progressively fades over the next 12 months, and with the combination of highly accommodative monetary policy and continuing fiscal support, the prospects are for abnormally high growth this year and next. While this will be at lower levels than the immediate post-pandemic recovery surge, it remains a strong environment for the corporate sector. We therefore remain broadly constructive about risk assets. Given the strength of equity markets over the past year, returns are likely to be harder to come by in the very short term and the Fed's tapering decision overhangs markets. It adds a dimension of risk and potentially higher volatility. But to date the Fed has flagged its intentions well and markets are prepared for some tightening. We should be prepared for some periods of volatility but we believe we are in a long market cycle and with patience and true diversification investors will be well rewarded in the year ahead.

■ Risk warnings and important notes

Investment in the Fund may not be suitable for all investors and financial advice should be sought before proceeding with an investment. Past performance is not indicative of future returns and there can be no assurance that the performance of the Fund will achieve its stated objective. All performance is calculated on a total returns basis, net of all fees and commissions and in US dollar terms

Collective investments are generally medium to long term investments and are traded at ruling prices. The value of the Fund and any income arising from it are not guaranteed and may fall, as well as rise, due to the value of its holdings, the income derived from them, and changes in interest rates. The Fund will hold shares or units in underlying funds which invest internationally, which will be exposed to exchange rate fluctuations, and may erode any potential gains.

Higher risk investments, such as small companies (even in developed markets), emerging markets, single country debt, equity funds, high yield and sub-investment grade debt may be more prone to sudden and larger falls in value in comparison to other investments. Unregulated funds may permit a greater degree of leverage than is permitted with regulated funds that are available to the general public in South Africa, which increases volatility and the risk of larger losses should the fund's value decrease.

The Fund may contain shares or units in underlying funds that do not permit dealing every day. It is not possible to immediately assess the proper market price of these investments, as they will only be realisable on their dealing days.

A fund of fund collective investment scheme only invests in other collective investments, which levy their own charges. The fees charged within the Fund and by the managers of the underlying funds are not guaranteed and are subject to change thereby impacting the Fund's performance. Commissions and incentives may be paid and, if so, would be included in the overall costs. Deductions of charges and expenses mean that you may not get back the amount you invested.
